

Sneha Ahmed

sneha.ahmed@college.ox.ac.uk 07111 222 333

Education

University of Oxford St Cross College MSt Medieval Studies (2021-2022)

- Specialisms: The Global Middle Ages; Saints and Sanctity in Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages; The Archaeology of Western Europe in the Early Middle Ages
- Language classes in Medieval Latin and Old English
- Research methods workshops

University of Oxford Sommerville College BA History first class (2018-2021)

- Hansborough Prize for top academic performance in finals
- Essay prize for 2000-word essay on The importance of the medieval period in the history of humanity

Solihull College (2016-2018)

- A levels: History (A*), Spanish (A), English Literature (A)
- EPQ: Was Joan of Arc the most important reason for England's loss of the Hundred Years' War? (A*)

Research Experience

Masters Dissertation, The transformation of visitation in thirteenth-century England

- Reviewing current literature to develop a summary of current thinking and establish source material
- Researching parish church artefacts and other historical records to explore the evolution of representations of the visitation
- 20,000 word dissertation to be submitted May 2022
- Supervised by Prof AN Other, University of Oxford

Research Intern, Auchindrain Trust, Scotland (July-Sept 2021)

- Auchindrain is a preserved Scottish Highland farm township, dating from the mid-16th century
- Measured, photographed and assessed the condition of museum objects
- Catalogued museum objects and artefacts
- Liaised with the museum's regular staff and with local people, to research content and produce film clips for the museum's tablet guides

Additional Experience

Student Recruitment Assistant, University of Oxford (Summer 2021)

- Delivered online presentations to groups of up to 200 prospective students, parents and teachers
- Co-ordinated the team of 10 student ambassadors to cover 20+ admissions events
- Managed the team email inbox and diary, including liaison with colleagues in undergraduate admissions, colleges and departments

Volunteer activities during the COVID Pandemic, Oxford (Summer 2020)

- Vaccination centre steward – directing the public, calming nerves, supporting clinical staff as needed
- Phone buddy for My life My Choice – check in and chat with people with a disability via weekly phone calls

Market Research Assistant, EGM Analysis (1-month internship, 2019)

- Produced eight accurate data tables to summarise previous field activities using SPSS
- Presented daily key data summary to managers with a colleague